Goyal Computer Shop: A Glimpse into Kurukshetra's Tech Haven

Located in the heart of Thanesar, Haryana, Goyal Computer Shop has become a notable destination for tech enthusiasts and computer shoppers. However, the experiences of customers visiting this shop have been mixed, prompting us to delve deeper into what consumers can expect.

Customer Service Concerns

One recurring theme among visitor feedback is the issue of customer service. Many patrons have expressed dissatisfaction with the way staff interact with them. Specifically, one customer mentioned that the staff and owner lack proper communication skills, which left them feeling undervalued during their visit. This sentiment was echoed by others who felt that employees do not know how to effectively talk to customers, leading to a frustrating experience.

Timeliness and Work Completion

Another significant concern raised by customers is the timeliness of service delivery. A visitor reported their disappointment after providing a birth certificate for conversion from Hindi to English, only to receive no follow-up after two months. This delay has led to frustration among clients who expect timely and efficient service. It's clear that improving work completion times could greatly enhance customer satisfaction at Goyal Computer Shop.

Mixed Reviews

Despite the negative experiences shared by some, it's worth mentioning that there are customers who have had positive experiences. One review highlighted a great experience at the shop, suggesting that while some patrons face difficulties, others find value in the products and services offered.

Conclusion

In conclusion, while Goyal Computer Shop in Kurukshetra has potential as a tech retail outlet, it faces challenges related to customer service and timely work completion. For the shop to thrive and attract more customers, addressing these concerns should be a priority. Buyers looking for computers and related services may want to consider both reviews before making a visit, ensuring they are informed about what to expect.
